Franklin D. Roosevelt – Senior Learning Network program offered

A free program about Franklin D. Roosevelt, America's 32nd President, will be presented on Thursday, June 18 at 10:00 a.m. at the Estes Park Senior Center, 220 Fourth Street. Advance sign-up is required for this free program. Call the Senior Center to sign up. The Estes Park Medical Center is providing sponsorship for this program.

This program features a live interactive online presentation by the Franklin D. Roosevelt Presidential Library and Museum in Hyde Park, NY. The program features an introduction to Franklin D. Roosevelt through the context of the challenges he faced and the contributions he made to the world in his time as well as our own. The focus is on his sense of confidence, and commitment to public service, his battle to overcome the effects of polio, his creation of the New Deal, his leadership during World War II and his role in creating the United Nations.

Throughout the year, the Town of Estes Park's Senior Services Division is offering Senior Learning Network (SLN) programs at the Senior Center, 220 Fourth Street. SLN programs are live and interactive videoconferences where participants will be able to listen to and speak with presenters live, in real time. The programs are free, however advance registration is required due to space limitations; call or stop by the Senior Center to register for any SLN programs. The Estes Park Medical Center is sponsoring the Senior Learning Network programs.

For more information, please contact the Estes Park Senior Center at (970) 586-2996 or visit the Center at 220 Fourth Street, Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please visit the Senior Center website at www.estes.org/seniorcenter.
